Quotes from families...

"I love the teaching staff and the small class sizes. The teaching staff is always willing to work with the children on all levels. The location is also very nice."

"My son, who is dyslexic, has excelled because the teachers at Holy Cross have gone above and beyond, being trained in the Barton system, so that they can better understand his learning needs."

"We love the one on one time our kids get with their teachers."

"We appreciate the individualized attention our son gets."

Our Philosophy: Holy Cross School provides the holistic education of students through Gospel values, academic excellence and positive concepts of self-worth in a stimulating and nurturing environment. Holy Cross School teaches the Gospel message which leads to local and global awareness and service to others. Holy Cross School encourages cooperation and communication between children, teachers, parents and community in order to develop a positive atmosphere of a family of faith through regular contact and opportunities for interaction and involvement.
